The City of Black Diamond is withdrawing the SEPA threshold Determination of Non-Significance (DNS) issued on October 6, 2021. On Friday, February 4, 2022, an appeal challenging the City's adoption of the 2020 Comprehensive Plan update was filed with the Growth Management Hearings Board. It is not a productive use of the City's limited resources to continue pursuing the proposed 2021 annual amendments while the previous year's Comprehensive Plan update remains in flux. Indeed, no final action could even be taken on the 2021 annual amendments until the status of the 2020 update has been fully and finally resolved, including all related appeal processes. Once the status of the 2020 Comprehensive Plan update has been resolved, the City may resume consideration of the proposed 2021 annual amendments (whether in present form or as later modified), including issuance of a new SEPA threshold determination.
